

Cut out and glue the sentences in the correct order to tell the story. Draw a picture for each.

Colour splashed out all over the parrot and onto the watching birds.

His hurt foot made him very sick. It swelled up and he was dying.

The parrot rushed forward and burst the little dove's swollen foot.

Crow was standing away and didn't get any colour.

Long ago in the dreamtime all the birds were black.

All dove's mates gathered around to help. All that is except crow.

Little dove flew around looking for food. He hurt his foot on a sharp stick.